

ANNOUNCEMENTS.
For Congress.

We are authorized to announce the Hon. J. W. LEFTWICH as a candidate for re-election to the office of Congressman from the Eighth Congressional District.

For the Legislature.
We are authorized to announce JOHN B. RUFFIN as a candidate for the office of legislator in the lower House of the next Legislature of Tennessee from the Hardeman county. Election first Tuesday in August.

To the Voters of Hardeman County.
Having been solicited by many friends to become a candidate to represent this county in the Legislature, I have concluded to become a candidate. I am a native of this county, and have lived here all my life. I am a farmer, and have been so since I was a boy. I am a native of this county, and have lived here all my life. I am a farmer, and have been so since I was a boy.

TICKETS—TICKETS.

Call at this office and get tickets for your District. Price, $2 per hundred. Do not fail. Conservatism must rule. "Put down but Americans on guard to-night." See that your District is furnished with an abundance of out-and-out Conservative tickets. Policy is the word.

A Word to You.—In his speech last Thursday Col. Cameron made it plain to every one of his hearers that they were groaning under taxes unnecessarily imposed. Now think of this: every man who votes the radical ticket not only votes to sustain the present system of taxation but votes for a party that will double and triple them in less than twelve months. For just so sure as the radical party wins, just so sure the indemnifying bill will become a law and the money be collected to defray the expenses of the worse than useless militia.

In an able article, referring to the present system of taxation, the Knoxville Free Press asks:

Where does the government get its money? Why, sir, it comes out of your pockets. Have you paid your taxes? Do you like a tax of five per cent. on your little earnings—the product of your honest toil? Five per cent. on income, to be paid to the United States tax collectors—internal revenue—now; but of necessity to be increased under the military rule. Add your country's State and corporation taxes to the income tax and internal revenue, and do you want it increased? Is your large ambition still insatiate? Sustain the Radical factionists—the Jacobin revolutionists in power, and soon, and to your sorrow, good reader, you will find yourself groaning under a load that you cannot bear, but which you cannot escape. The tax-payers of the country—the honest yeoman of the land who till the soil and earn their grain by honest sweat—the industrious mechanic who piles his honest calling from blushing morn to dewy eve—you, are the men who will be called upon to foot the bill of expenses of this shameless expenditure—this iniquitous tyranny—this outrage upon liberty. And if you sustain the Radical rule by your votes in August, you can not consistently complain, when your taxes become ruinous—that your liberties are gone. "Those who dance must pay the Piper."

Let it be known that if Brownlow and his radical friends are elected the taxes in this State, already excessive and extremely oppressive, will be more than tripled in twelve months.

The Salisbury (N. C.) Banner says a certain emissary from Yankeeedom passed through the county of Anson, a short time since, vending tickets or certificates to the negroes, which he told them would entitle each holder to forty acres of land. He sold a large number to the negroes along his route at fifty cents each. The negroes, however, becoming assured that they had been swindled, pursued the scoundrel, overtook him, made him refund the money with an additional fifty cents in each case, and then drew his shirt, when they proceeded to administer a severe flogging upon his back. This done, they allowed him to go on his way rejoicing. If every such scoundrel was served thus, the country would soon get rid of a great evil.

Let it be known that the Conservative party is opposed to the cotton tax.

The Greenville (Ala.) Advocate tells a good story relative to the registration in that vicinity. It says, when the Registrars were in a certain beat the freedmen wanted to know the cause of their having "to put down their names." They were informed by a rather smart individual that it was for the purpose of ascertaining their numbers, preparatory to sending them to Brazil, to fight to free their brethren in bondage there. The idea took; that night they shed blood to the swamps, and did not return until the Registrars had left.

Let it be known that if a radical Legislature is elected the indemnifying bill will become a law; and let it be known that it will take over one hundred millions of dollars to pay off the claims of such men as W. J. Smith; and let it be known that the poor people of the county will have this enormous sum to furnish.

Let it be remembered that Emerson Etheridge voted against the extension of slavery.

RADICALISM TURNED UPSIDE DOWN.

Col. C. S. Cameron Beards the Monster in his Den.

Proves the Radical Leaders to be Apostate Rebels.

Last Wednesday, in company with a number of our fellow citizens, we visited Jackson for the purpose of hearing Gen. Blair, of Missouri, and other orators speak at that place. Arriving at the Court-house we found it occupied by a company of Brownlow's militia, while a large and attentive crowd assembled in the eastern portion of the yard. In a few moments Col. Cameron, of Memphis, was introduced, and made a most powerful speech, in fact, the most withering, clear, and comprehensive political argument we ever heard. He knew no half-way grounds, and came squarely and boldly to the point. He proved the radical leaders to be a graceless set of apostate rebels, and even called upon the captain of the militia to certify to the base acts of such men as Maynard, Arnell, Stokes and Smith. He proved that the registration officer of Madison county was an ex-Confederate conspirator officer, and that the Postmaster at Jackson was no better against the negroes than he employed his friends to furnish him with arms that he might kill them. He denounced both these "lame ducks," and proved them to be fair specimens of the rule or ruin party. There was not a point that the speaker did not make; he knew the truth; told it, and made his hearers feel that he was the right man in the right place. So plain and candid did he assert and maintain every position assumed, that even the militia at times joined in the general shout that from time to time rose from the vast crowd of both white and black. For four hours the speaker held the stand and swayed the assemblage with his mirth, logic, law, honesty, and good, old fashioned common sense. Gen. Blair did not arrive, and at the conclusion of Col. Cameron's able speech the people withdrew, each one being impressed with the idea that Cameron made the most powerful speech ever made in Jackson since the opening of the present canvass. We heard men of sound judgment and of long residence in Madison say that Col. Cameron's speech was worth not less than two hundred and fifty votes to the Conservative party.

AT BOLIVAR.

Col. Cameron arrived here on the 9:50 a. m. train Thursday morning, and became the guest of Judge Austin Miller. A stand was erected in the shady yard of the Female Academy, and at 11 o'clock General R. P. Neely introduced the champion defender of the people's rights. Around him was gathered not less than one thousand people, black and white, all eager to hear and to learn. As at Jackson, the speaker boldly marched up to the enemy's front, and never ceased firing until he had literally torn the rotten hull of radicalism into fragments. Observing that an unusual number of freedmen were present, he turned his attention to them and made them feel that it was their duty to vote the Conservative ticket. He exposed the cheats and tricks which the radicals are practising upon them. Asked them honest questions, and was honestly and satisfactorily answered. Many a negro who heard the speech last Thursday has made his mind up to the effect that radical men and radical measures will not do for the poor, laboring, toiling man. The speaker convinced the negroes present that no "radical" racial or abolitionist freed them. He convinced them no radical party would or could give them forty acres of land, and he convinced them that they could go to the polls and vote as they wanted to; and he convinced them too that it was to their interest to vote for Etheridge; he proved this to the letter. Colonel Cameron carries with him a power for our political salvation that few men possess; brilliant, educated, firm, an honored and gallant officer of the Federal army, a true patriot and able barrister, he can but win us votes wherever he goes. He spoke in Lagrange yesterday, speaks in Somerville to-day, Columbia Tuesday, Franklin Wednesday morning, and in Nashville Wednesday night. We wish we had a Cameron in every county in the State.

Let it be known that the Conservative party is in favor of equal balanced justice to all men, both white and black.

INTERESTING LETTER.

Below we give a letter written to us by Piser Miller, Esq., who will be seen, is enjoying the salubrious climate of hilly northeast Alabama. As usual, he is looking after the welfare and comfort of his fellow-citizens. We hope his pen-pictures will visit us often:

HUNTSVILLE, ALA., July 24, 1867.

Dear Sir—I am just in from Memphis, and I must say to you that they have the best crops I ever saw—fine wheat, but little of it. The corn is fine; so is the cotton. I would say there is four acres of corn to one of cotton in cultivation, and I am told by an intelligent traveler that about the same state of things exist in Georgia, except they have a great deal more wheat.

I am also told that any quantity of good wheat can be bought in Lincoln county, Tennessee, at 80c, which would be equal to $1 25 at the depots on the railroads, and freights from there to Junction about 25c. per bushel, and by the car load at less.

I have been looking with a view to the practicability of getting our supply of coal from this region. I find a great many mines through this country, but the veins are so thin and the coal so inferior that it will not do yet to depend on. Some of the largest veins are composed of a kind of sand coal, that must be baked with fire before it can be transported, and as it will not stick together. This article is very fine for foundries, blacksmith shops and cooking stoves.

[Politics here about as in Hardeman.

Very respectfully,
PISER MILLER.

Let it be known that Brownlow is not the negroes friend.

A RUNAWAY SCARF.—A GERMAN DECLARES HE IS "A KITT."

A few days ago, says the Union and Dispatch, two Germans, fresh from the Rheinland and fresher from a brewery, were passing down Vine street in an express wagon, when some of the harness broke and the horses ran at full speed, striking the wheels against the curbstone, and capsizing the buggy and causing the elder German to perform a few gymnastic feats, with his head on the pavement and heels in the air. After his head struck the pavement, his hands becoming entangled in the lines, he was dragged for some distance over the stones till the lines broke and left him a bleeding, lacerated victim. Dr. Marbury was called to his assistance and commenced dressing his wounds. The German could not speak English, nor could the Doctor understand German. The German believing the time had come for him to "shuffle off this mortal coil," and go to the land where there is no longer beer, commenced praying earnestly in German. He asked the Doctor if he would not die. The Doctor not understanding the question answered, "yes." Then such a scream and a prayer, "Mine Got, mine Got." The great tears rolled from his eyes and mingled with the stream of blood issuing from a score of wounds on his face. The doctor continued closing the wounds and applying the coat plaster to the great gashes. The pain was intense. The German, seeing such streams of the vital fluid flowing, placed his hand on his pulse and said in mongrel German and English, "Oh, Doctor! mine Got! I be dead shust now?" The doctor not comprehending his remark, and supposing him to be asking how long before he would be through dressing the wounds, replied, "Yes, in a minute or two." This answer horrified the German, and such contortions of countenance and such prayers to "mine Got" were never heard before this side of Germany. A kind friend standing by, who understood German, explained to the sufferer that the doctor did not understand him, and that he would not "go dead shust now," such to his joy and relief.

Let it be known that Brownlow is a radical and that the radical party taxed cotton $15 per bale.

LIST OF CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS.—Below we give a full list of all the Conservative candidates, for Congress, and each and every one of whom we hope will be elected by rousing majorities:

1st Dist.—James White, of Hawkins, 2d Dist.—John Williams, of Knox, 3d Dist.—E. G. Fleming, of Warren, 4th Dist.—Ed Cooper, of Bedford, 5th Dist.—Bailie Peyton, of Sumner, 6th Dist.—D. B. Thomas, of Humphreys, 7th Dist.—W. P. Caldwell, of Weakly, 8th Dist.—J. W. Leftwich of Shelby.

Let it be known that the man who votes for Brownlow and his radical friends is opposed to untieing the hands of the disfranchised citizens of this State.

Let the Tennessee soldiers who served in the Confederate army, remember that while they were being paid in Confederate money, Governor Harris who sold them into the rebellion, demanded and drew his salary as Governor in gold. Official record proves it. —Press & Times.

Aha! Gold did you say? Let the Tennessee farmers who have served their country faithfully, and the Tennessee soldiers who fought valiantly for the Union, remember that while they were being paid in greenbacks, at a discount of 30 to 40 per cent, the Radical members of the last Legislature demanded, and voted and drew their per diem in gold—thus abstracting from the Treasury $50,000 per day instead of $4,000, which they had sworn as all they would take. They thus rifled only about $78,000 from the pockets of the people. Give us another gold item, Mr. Organ! —Free Press.

There are now four hundred and fifty-eight convicts in the State penitentiary, and the number is increasing every day. So says a Nashville paper.

Coleman's Rural World, 15th inst, says: The FASTEST THROTTING TIME ON RECORD.—The great match for $1000 between Dexter in harness and Ethan Allen with running mate, came off on the Fashion Course, near New York yesterday. Upwards of twenty thousand persons were present. Dexter was the favorite—100 to 50. Another running mate was substituted for Charlotte F., in consequence of her having gone lame. All bets were declared off. Ethan Allen won in three straight heats. Time—2:15, 2:10 and 2:13—fastest time on record. Dexter's time on the second heat, 2:18.

All the drinking saloons in Memphis are to be closed on the day of election; and no one will be allowed carry fire-arms on that day.

The trichinosis, which was thought to have died out in Germany, has again showed itself at Halberstadt, Lower Saxony. A considerable number of the inhabitants, and among them children only three years old, have been afflicted. Without the intervention of the police, the butcher who sold the diseased pork would probably have suffered severely from the anger of the populace.

A poor, miserable puppy, named J. S. Brishen, a U. S. A. officer, has written a letter to the gallant and distinguished editor of the Memphis Bulletin, in which he calls the admiral a pirate. The true-hearted sailor replies in a becoming manner and crams the false utterance of general Brishen down the throat that uttered them as the heroic gunners of the peerless Alabama were wont to run a solid shot into the sterns of all such ducks as Brishen!

The following are the names and supposed numbers of the hostile tribes now united in the war upon the whites: Apaches, 7,000; Arapahoes, 3,000; Blackfeet, 5,000; Crows, 3,000; Comanches, 20,000; Kiowas, 4,000; Cheyennes, 2,500; Gros Ventres, 500; Minatons, 2,500; Navajos, 7,500; Sioux, 22,000. Total, 79,000.

As soon as the cable between Cuba and the Florida coast is completed, messengers will be taken to place Havana in telegraphic communication with Porto Rico, Hayti, St. Domingo and Jamaica, only short submarine cables being needed to bring all these islands within the telegraphic net.

CAUTION.—Vote at your own district polls. Do not come into town on election day if you can contribute only a small vote to the Conservative ticket at home. By such a course pence and order will be more likely to prevail.

MARRIAGE IN HIGH LIFE.—By the following paragraph it will be seen that a Tennessee girl has married a Prince. Says one of Nashville exchanges:

The friends of our former and distinguished fellow-citizen, Hon. Jas. Williams, now residing in Austria, have recently been advised of the marriage of his second daughter, Miss Mary C., to Prince Nordmann, De Signora des Princess de President. The happy event took place on the 20th of May.

LIGHT ARCADE.—Drought, which has for many years been the angel of destruction to the South, has not been heard of in all her borders this season. The early and latter rains have fallen, and the husbandman's heart is rejoiced to see his fields luxuriant with the growing crop. The indications from reports from all portions of the country, will lead us to believe that the number of next year than they have been in many years past.—Nashville Union.

COTTON CROP.—We see that speculators are getting down the growing crop of cotton at three millions of bales. They will find themselves most woefully mistaken. It will not in our judgment exceed one and a-half millions of bales. The planters are directing all their energy toward making cotton. The cotton is greatly damaged by the continuing rains, and of the quantity planted is comparatively nothing on the Mississippi river land.—Panola Star.

We have it from the most undoubted authority that Gen. George H. Thomas expresses himself in strong disapprobation of the entire military system set on foot by Brownlow, as tending to produce discord, to get strife shed needless blood, and keep the country in constant turmoil and excitement.—Nashville Banner.

CROPS LOOKING UP.—The very fine rain that fell last Sunday, and which we believe, extended throughout the county, has caused corn and cotton to look up more than any rain heretofore. Possibly good crops may be made here yet—that is of corn and cotton.—Trenton Times & Gazette.

Belle Boyd, who acquired a world wide reputation during the late war, as the "Confederate heroine," and who has been sojourning in Martinsburg, Va., during the past few months, will leave shortly to fill a number of engagements in the theatres of the Eastern and Western cities.

The farmers of this county are rejoicing in the prospect of fine crops and plentiful crops and everybody also partakes of their cheerfulness, for the prosperity of all classes depends upon the success of the planter.—Canton (Miss.) Citizen.
